The Friends of Famosa Slough

Famosa Slough is the perfect place to get involved. You can really make a difference here and see the results of your efforts. Whether your interest is birds or plants, education or research, there is an opportunity for you at the Slough. Do something positive for yourself, for the environment, and for San Diego. Get involved at Famosa Slough.

Friends of Famosa Slough is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Contributions are tax deductible.

Some of the volunteer possibilities include:

- Remove non- native vegetation
- Nurture native plants by planting, weeding and watering
- Help on miscellaneous jobs at our regular work parties the 2nd Saturdays of odd-numbered months
- Education — assist with our classroom presentations and guided field trips for classes from Barnard Elementary School and Correia Junior High School
- Perform public outreach—help staff Friends of Famosa Slough booth at various special events throughout the year including San Diego EarthFair in April
- Lead field trips
- Monitor water quality—collect and analyze water samples
